11:00 – 11:40 PM	THE REAL IMPACT OF GREEN STAR: FIRST EVER RESEARCH
	Orjan Lundberg, GBCA Director Green Star Operations In late 2012 the GBCA commissioned a study to discover what the real impact of your Green Star achievements has been over the last 10 years. Find out from Green Star Director of Operations, Orjan Lundberg how the environmental savings of Green Star certified buildings adds up to thousands of cars off the roads, millions of litres of drinking water kept in our rivers and thousands of truckloads of waste kept out of landfill. You'll also hear about the next phase of research where we'll be looking at further environmental attributes, as well as the financial value of Green Star certification.

11:40 – 12.15 PM	THE POLICY BEHIND THE PROJECT Robin Mellon, Executive Director Advocacy and Business Services, GBCA A Local Government Code, conditions of approval, or an aspirational Mayor, the reasons for Governments' adoption of Green Star are diverse. GBCA Executive Director for Advocacy and Business Services, Robin Mellon, talks about the governments that are leading by example and transforming local attitudes, local economies and local environments through Green Star. This presentation will also explore the commitments made by all sides of politics to our green building future and how these commitments may affect our industry in a year that is sure to be laden with federal election promises. We will assess the opportunities for our industry in a rapidly changing political landscape and discuss how together we can demonstrate to governments that a Green Star outcome is the best building outcome.
