LEADING GREEN THINKERS INVITATION

ADOPTING A SUSTAINABLE APPROACH TO ALL ELEMENTS OF A BUSINESS MODEL IS BECOMING CRUCIAL FOR COMPANIES THE WORLD OVER. AUSTRALIAN BUSINESSES MUST NOW SUCCESSFULLY DEVELOP SUSTAINABLE PROCESSES TO REDUCE THEIR IMPACT ON THE PLANET, WHILE STILL MEETING THEIR ALL-IMPORTANT BOTTOM-LINE.

Since 1994, InterfaceFLOR have been moving towards creating a wholly sustainable business. Mission Zero is their promise to eliminate any negative impact the company has on the environment by the year 2020. Dedicated to leading the industry in sustainable practice, InterfaceFLOR aim at becoming a restorative business - putting back more than they take out.

Join us for an inspiring Leading Green Thinkers seminar hosted by the Green Building Council of Australia, featuring the President and Chief Executive Officer of InterfaceFLOR Asia Pacific, Robert Coombs.

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

Robert Coombs

Robert Coombs is President and Chief Executive Officer of the Asia Pacific division of InterfaceFLOR, Australia's leading manufacturer of commercial interior products.

With a background in marketing and product management, Robert first joined Interface in 1988, as the UK - and later European - Marketing Manager.

Pioneering InterfaceFLOR's corporate social responsibility in the Asia Pacific region, Rob has been able to lead InterfaceFLOR in becoming Australia's first manufacturing company to have 100% of its products Climate Neutral.
